Spiritual Explorations
Introduction to Richard Rohr Charlie Elberson & Lou Kinard	Father Richard Rohr will be leading a workshop here at MPBC in April 2012. If you don't know his work, join this class for an overview and "greatest hits" of this dynamic spiritual teacher. Topics include mysticism, the Cosmic Christ, new insights on Paul, the Enneagram, and the Divine as masculine & feminine. The class will include audio and video clips of Rohr's talks and classes. If you know Rohr's work, join us and bring your favorite Rohr books, quotes and wisdom to class. Learn more about Rohr at: http://www.cacradicalgrace.org/	Tuesdays, 6:30 – 8:00 pm February 7 – March 13	At home of Charlie & Lou off Fairview near Foxcroft Shopping Center	12
Seeing with the Eyes of the Heart: Encountering Jesus on the Wisdom Path Pattie Butler, therapist & Pat Adams, spiritual director	Register for either or both of this two-part series. Part 1 will emphasize Cynthia Bourgeault's The Wisdom Jesus that will explore what it means to "see with the eyes of the heart." Part 2 will include Richard Rohr's book The Naked Now that will aid in discovering how to "see as the mystics see." A key question will explore, "How do I die (to the ego or small self) before I die?" Emphasis will be given to cultivating spiritual practices as a way to see with the eyes of the heart. Both Richard Rohr (April 27-29) and Cynthia Bourgeault (October 19-21) will be guest speakers at MPBC during 2012.	Sunday mornings, 9:15-10:45 am Part I: Wisdom Jesus 2/12 – 3/11 Part II: Naked Now 3/18 – 4/15	MPBC Room 251	Open enrollment	Part I
		Part II
Man Salon Andrew Daugherty	A guided and free-flowing discussion group for men who are ready to explore their spiritual journeys and who wish to deepen their conscious contact with God and with other men. The group will learn fuller ways of thinking about masculinity while building friendships with other men in the congregation. Along with time for personal sharing, Richard Rohr's book From Wild Man to Wise Man will serve as a foundation for weekly discussion.	Thursdays, 6:30 – 8:00 pm February 1 – March 29	Off Campus	6 - 8
On the Authentic Life: Five Films About Getting Real Sheila Ennis & Tom Schultz	We all share a need to belong, to feel at home, and to know that our lives mean something . We share a need to be accepted for who we really are and to step out from behind the masks, put away the costumes and scripts, and live our own truth. What might it cost us to live authentically? What does it cost us when we don't? What might we gain in truly being ourselves? What might we lose? We will explore these questions using five movies: Imitation of Life ; Far From Heaven ; Transamerica ; Batman Begins , and The Secret Life of Bees .	Thursdays, 6:15 – 9:30 pm February 2 & 16, March 1, 15, 29, April 12	Cornwell Conference Center	15
Reading the Gospels and Writing Your Own Steve Shoemaker	This group will read Reynolds Price's book, Three Gospels , in which he translates Mark and John, then writes his own. A week each will be given to Matthew and Luke and two apocryphal Gospels, The Gospel of Thomas and the Gospel of Mary Magdalene. Participants will be invited to write their own Gospel at whatever length they wish from 10-40 pages. During the last two sessions, the group will share their Gospels.	Tuesdays, 6:30 – 7:45 pm	MPBC Conference Room Cost $20 for book and written materials	20

Living Faith

Saints and Villains Donna Nesbitt	Join us for a six-week exploration of the book Saints and Villains , by Denise Giardina. This historical novel evokes the danger and heroism of the Nazi resistance, through a fictional re-creation of the life of German theologian Dietrich Bonhoeffer. We'll delve into conflicts of ethics, morality, theology and loyalty to one's country---then and now. This "Open Book Club" welcomes all adults---the more diverse, the better! Purchase at Park Road Books and receive 20% discount (mention MPBC Open Book Club.)	Tuesdays, 2:00 – 3:30 pm January 31 – March 6	First meeting MPBC Cornwell Center Lounge; thereafter at members' homes	Open
SaSa Chorus Fran Morrison	Ladies, did you sing in grade school? College? Do you miss it but just don't have time for a huge time commitment? Maybe you think your "pipes are too rusty" to sing again? SaSa could be your chance to revitalize your music within. Come connect with other ageless women and enjoy the fullness and richness of women's voices together. Let's connect our spirituality, our life and soul using our greatest and most personal instrument – our voice. Chancel choir women are welcome too! Childcare is available by reservation with Fran. Must attend at least 5 of the 6 rehearsals (talk to Fran if you're interested but can't do Monday nights).	1 st meeting Friday, February 24 (social gathering, place TBA) Rehearsals Mondays, 7-8 pm 2/27, 3/5, 3/12, 3/19, 3/26 Tuesday, 4/10 Sing in worship 4/15	MPBC Sanctuary Basement rehearsal room	Open ~ min 12
On Pilgrimage Cheryl Patterson	Have you ever considered going on a Pilgrimage? Wonder what the difference is between a Pilgrimage and a Vacation? Join this circle of discussion on what it means to be On Pilgrimage. Our discussions will be based on The Art of Pilgrimage by Phil Cousineau, scripture passages, and scenes from the movie, The Way .
