

PHOTO SPECIAL INTEREST GROUP

At the Cornwell Learning Center

10 Questions

Who's it for?

Anybody interested in pictures, whether or not you've got a digital camera... or any camera... or even take pictures. If you like learning about what makes them good, what makes them work, what makes you feel something... if you like talking about them and to the people who make them... it's for you!

What do I need to do?

Just show up. Come and watch. Come with questions. Come and participate. Come on.

Participate?

If you like, you can submit a photo you feel fits our monthly theme. It will be part of our monthly judging. EMail it to jbambach@mpbconline.org by noon the day before the meeting. You can view it and the others at www.cornwellcenter.org, on the Learning Center page.

Do I have to submit a photo?

Nope.

Can I get an opinion without being judged?

If you'd rather, you can submit a photo for a viewing only. Label yours as "Not For Judging."

How to I submit a photo?

Send it or drop it at our front desk by noon of the meeting day.

How often do you do this?

Typically, the third Wednesday of each month, 7-8:15 pm; social time until 9 pm.

What is the cost?

Nothing. Well, it costs you some time, some fuel, and some... well, just time and fuel.

What will I learn?

Composition, cameras, lighting, landscapes, techniques, timing, portraits, purchasing, creativity, communication, diversity...
